

About us

MarketWare was born in 2001, created of purely national capital with the aim of helping companies to assert themselves in their markets by using new technologies and investing in the paradigms of the digital economy. MarketWare has in its base offer Internet services and consultancy in Safety and Quality of Service, being recognized as the company that monitors the Internet and the largest supplier of digital certificates to secure servers in Portugal.

Nowadays, is a multinational, market-leading in the TIC market with presence in Spain (Madrid) and customers across Europe, including Germany, France, Belgium, Switzerland and Italy.